

Chartered
Institute of Credit Management

Employer Proposal

My proposal for Level 5 CICM Qualifications

WHAT IS A CICM QUALIFICATION?

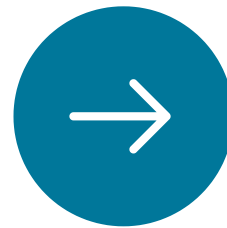

Globally recognised Qualifications in Credit Management and Collections

The Credit Management and Collections profession is one that requires skilful, knowledgeable and qualified professionals in order to maximise the success of your organisation - cashflow is the life of your business.

How will this help the business?

Statistics show that recognised Qualifications are an excellent way to upskill your team in order to deliver success.

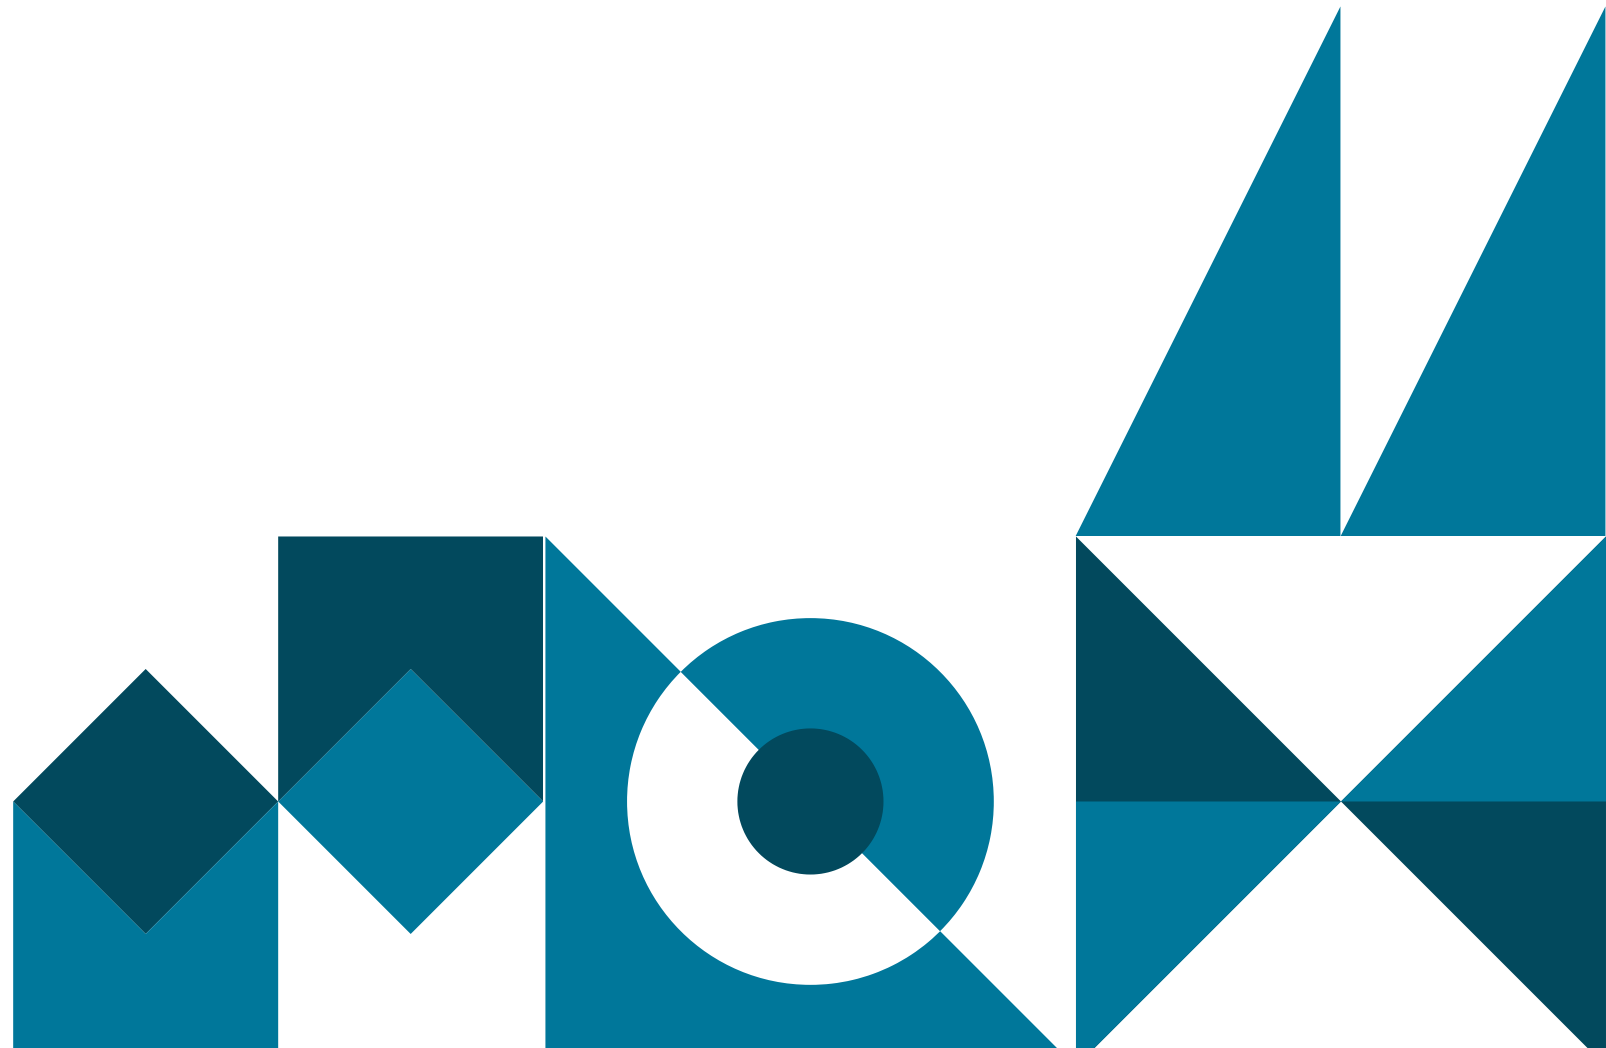

79% of CEOs believe that investing in your people with professional development is essential for their business's success

Businesses that invest in upskilling their workforce can increase their productivity up to 30%

Companies that invest in employee training and development have a 24% higher profit margin than those who don't invest in such initiatives.

WHAT I WILL GAIN

The Level 5 Diploma

The Advanced Diploma in Credit & Collections (Level 5) is designed to innovate, lead teams and operate in complex business environments. This qualification demonstrates a high level of knowledge and expertise in credit management and the ability to maximise the efficiency of the credit function.

I will need to successfully complete four of the Level 5 units.

COSTS AND PACKAGES

Investing in development

There are a variety of packages available to help me achieve my Level 5 Diploma in Credit Management and Collections. Below, you can see the cost to complete a Diploma via the learning support service, Virtual Classes or Self Study.

To achieve a Level 5 Diploma

Learning Support Service Package = £2,662*

Virtual Class Package = £3,362*

Self Study Package = £314*

*As per 2023 prices, these are subject to change based on additional requirements such as exemptions or annual price review.

